Deco 508

A stack of rectangular stone tiles with a wood-grain pattern, labeled DECO 509. The tiles are arranged in a stack, showing the pattern on the top surface. The pattern consists of vertical lines in shades of brown, tan, and grey, mimicking natural wood grain. The tiles are set against a background of a light-colored wall and a dark wooden structure. The label 'DECO 509' is printed in black text on a white rectangular background at the bottom center of the image.
